

New forms of incentive funding for public research: An overview of research excellence initiatives (REIs)

New Forms of Incentive Funding for Public Research
Project Kickoff Workshop
OECD Conference Centre - Paris, Nov. 29th, 2011
Dominic Orr, Johannes Wespel

New forms of incentive funding for public research

New forms of incentive funding for public research – dimensions of difference

New forms of incentive funding for public research – further elements for investigation

- gathering of detailed data relevant to funding on state and institutional levels
- convergence of national REIs on international level
- effects of REIs on building structures within national research landscapes
- interaction of REIs and other forms and levels of research funding
- perception of benefits of REIs from national perspective